

CCCA Workshop No. 4, Møn, 14-18 August 2019: ART IN RURAL COMMUNITIES

Practical information:

Accommodation:

Solbakken, c/o Hanne-Louise Johannesen
Stendyssevej 19, 4791 Borre
Tel. (+45) 61267062

Price: 600 DKK. Pay to Hanne-Louise upon arrival either in cash or via mobilpay.
There will be mattresses, covers and pillows, so bring your own sheets and bed linen. Also bring towel and personal stuff. Warm clothes and raincoats might be needed as well.

Food:

Bring your own lunch for August 14.
All other meals are included. E-mail Hanne-Louise (hanne-louise@diffus.dk) if you are vegetarian or have food allergies. The meals will be made from local produce from Møn. The famous Møn Water will be served to meals, and you can buy beer and wine.

Transport:

Some participants will go in a minibus (9 persons) that Gunhild will drive from Copenhagen. We will use the minibus during the workshop. Other participants will go to Møn in their own cars, and may also drive for the workshop if needed.
If you arrive or leave the workshop at other times, you must arrange your own transport, such as local public transport. You can use Rejseplanen: rejseplanen.dk

Presentations:

In the morning sessions we will have academic presentations and discussions at Solbakken. Presentations are short (15-20 minutes), which allows for time for discussions. There will be a computer and a projector available.
The presentation can be about art and rural communities, either with a theoretical or analytical approach, or based on case studies. Historical examples are welcome, and they can be from anywhere in the world.
